

Please leave the Do Not Call list intact - Do not let the banking industry drive this safeguard into their private game. I do not want to receive calls to help their businesses. I make it a point to not answer unknown number and name calls or calls from people I do not know. However this will still be a problem with the increased phone rings. Protect the citizens not the "fay cats".